It is very rightly said that "An essay is a thing of imagination and imagination makes up three quarters of our real life." With this view in mind S B Patil Institute of Management conducted an Essay Competition for the MBA I and II year students.

On the occasion of Vigilance week celebrated by CVC of India (Central Vigilance Commission), AIR INDIA and SBPIM jointly conducted the competition on 25th October 2016. The prize distribution of the same was conducted on 4th November 2016. The prize distribution was done by the hands of three eminent personalities who came from CVC and Air India, Mumbai. The event started with a welcome speech by Dr Daniel Penkar, Director, SBPIM. The guests Mr Kishore Prabhu, Regional Vigilance Head, Mr Suhas Jadhav, Station Mayor, Air India, Pune and Mr Anil Mokal, Mayor Vigilance Department Mumbai were felicitated and welcomed to the Institute.

Mr Kishore Prabhu enlightened the students with some keys to success which would help them to change the picture of nation and also said to the students that the responsibility to eradicate the corruption lies primarily with the youth. He also focused on Maslows Need Hierachy theory and explained how the self actualization need which is at the top of the pyramid should be at the bottom, which will satisfy and eradicate the greed aspect in an individual.

Mr Suhas Jadhav Station Manager, Air India Pune guided the students and said that instead of blaming the government we should try to minimize it on our level. He also said that we can minimize the corruption by e-governance.

The event progressed with the prize distribution. The prizes were distributed by the hands of the guest. The names of the winners are as under –

For MBA - I

Topic - “Can we dream of a Corruption free India?”

- Winners are -
1. Ms Akshata A. Chandankar
  2. Ms Trupti R Lad
  3. Ms Reshmi Rajan Pillai

For MBA - II

Topic - “How Effective will public participation be in eradicating corruption in India?”

- Winners are –
1. Ms Sadiya Siddiqui
  2. Mr Amardeep R Suryawanshi
  3. No candidate was up to the mark.

The event concluded by the vote of thanks given by Dr Deepti Sharma. She thanked all the dignitaries and also Dr Daniel Penkar, Director, SBPIM. She also thanked the students for making this event a success.

This refers the discussion Mr. Anil Mokal, Manager-Vigilance, had with you regarding celebration of Vigilance Awareness Week between 30th October to 05th November, 2016.

As part of the activities planned during the week, the CVC has asked us to organise Essay Competitions / Debates in select Schools and Colleges in your cities. The theme for the week is "Public Participation in promoting Integrity and eradicating Corruption" and hence the Essay Competitions and debates have to be focussed on the theme.

The winners (01st, 2nd and 3rd place) in the essay and debates will be rewarded with a certificate and cash prizes. First will receive a certificate and Rs. 1000/-, Second place will receive a certificate and Rs. 500/-, while the third place will be only certificate.

You are requested to organise the programmes on the above lines in coordination with Shri Mokal.
