No. of Students Participation: 53

Venue: Akurdi, Chinchwad, Pradhikarn.

INSTITUTE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

S. B. Patil Institute of Management students along with PCCOE students had planned for a social awareness activity in and around the society, for major health issue arising out of Swine Flu and how to take precautions to keep Swine Flu at bay.

All the 1st year MBA students had participated in this. We planned of distributing the write ups in selected areas as well as a rally in the crowded areas. Around 15 groups, 2 members each were sent to distribute the write ups regarding importance and Precautions against Swine Flu. They went to the following areas in Pradhikaran, Sectors 24, 26, 27, 27A, Bijli Nagar, Dalvi Nagar and Akurdi. We targeted specifically the residential areas only. All the people appreciated the efforts of students which can be seen from the following responses,

Some feedback from the residents:

“The activity was beneficial and such initiatives should be continued.”

Neha Mali, Sec. 26.

“This is a good awareness initiative. People get good information about swine flu and energy saving appliances. Keep It Up!”

Kavita Bansal, Dalvi Nagar.

On the other hand 2 teams of around 25 students each participated in the rally. The rally began in the college premises, proceeded towards Dr D.Y. Patil College then back again from the Akurdi Railway Station to the S. B. Patil building. The 2nd team started from sambhaji Chowk to Mhalsakant Chowk and walked back to college. We carried 10 posters along with us. During the rally all the enthusiastic students were walking along with slogans like, Svachata Pala, Swine Flu Tala” and many more.
