An Environment Preservation and Plantation Drive At Kurkundi, Khed was arranged of MBA students. In a special drive the students of SBPIM visited village Kurkundi to understand the living of villagers, their problems and scope for the development of the village using management principles. The Sarpanch of the town Mr. Kailas Sutar welcomed participants and explained them the status of the progress of the town. All the participating students walked around the town and understood the demographic structure. They asked various questions to villagers and tried to understand how their living standard can be developed through bringing in some businesses. They visited the hill where mass plantation was done, our students assisted in this mass plantation and guided local school students in this activity.
