Dr. H. D. Thorat was invited at Khandesh Education Society's Pratap College, Amalner, Dist- Jalgaon on 13th January 2015 to address the students on the topic "Career in Commerce and Management and Opportunities in Higher Education, Employment & Entrepreneurship".

Sir Started the session with mentioning that in India there is poor functioning of 3Es of education, employment and employability, which has been the main reason that poverty has not substantially reduced. Added to this is the fourth E of entrepreneurship which, had it been effective, could have delivered the desired employment outcomes.

Sir gave a perspective about how jobs can mean economic freedom for women; provide access to education and health services for children; and present an alternative to violence for idle youth. Employment is crucial to successful and sustainable development.

Sir also emphasized that there is an urgent need to promote entrepreneurship at college level in order to create employability amongst the new generation. He also mentioned the importance of undergoing a formal education to become an entrepreneur. Sir gave an overview of how getting a management degree can be helpful in creating the 3Es.
