up the company ladder you need to be passionate about your work. He said that one need to be motivated and driven to be the best regardless of the job.

Sir said that Passion is an emotion that comes from within, it is the enthusiasm, zeal, drive and motivation. He said that one should not just feel passionate about Job but one should put passion into it. In doing this one has to put all the skills and energy into the work assigned.

To conclude he said that Passion does not go unnoticed. People will see how well you do your job and your attitude towards it. They will see even if a task is hard you don't give in, you apply yourself even more to overcome it. They will notice your drive and your motivation and consider how you would do in another position.

The session ended with a brief question answer round, where Sir answered the queries the students had put forth.
