Report on Visit to Shraddha Foundation, Karjat
Academic Year 2013 – 14

11th January 2014

A journey back to a place where it reminded us what we all are at the end “human beings”. Experiencing a different aspect of life, away from the competitive nature and struggle of being ahead of others, it just felt meaningless. Seeing the work and dedication of such brave souls who gave their life for the betterment of schizophrenic patients touched our hearts. The vision of social workers at Shraddha Foundation is truly inspirational. Their efforts for helping these wandering minds, showing them and bringing them back on the right path was highly commendable. This particular visit to Shraddha Foundation gave us new energy and encouragement to be selfless and be a ray of hope for others.
