

S. B. Patil Institute of Management

Feedback Analysis Report

Academic Year 2015-16

• Student's Feedback:

▪ Points of Satisfaction:

1. They have witnessed an overall development in their personality as a result of the curriculum.
2. The curriculum has taught them to face challenging situations.
3. The curriculum has helped to develop their competency in decision making.
4. They agreed that the program and course curriculum has linked the gap between theory and practical application coupled with innovation and creativity.
5. Students agreed the program successfully imparted values and ethics in them.
6. They are satisfied with the infrastructural facilities provided by the institute.
7. They expressed that the program has improved their decision making ability and also helped them to identify their career goals.

▪ Points of Improvement:

1. Students stressed on the need to explain certain points / topics in local languages.

• Teachers Feedback:

▪ Points of Satisfaction:

1. The overall feedback of teachers' highlighted that for the holistic development course content of program is helpful and adequate.
2. Teachers have strongly stated the curriculum is pro-theory.
3. They agreed that they are in a position to instill creativity in students and lessen the gap between theory and practical application including values and ethics.

▪ Points of Improvement:

1. They voiced to enhance the current curriculum and make it more application based for the future batches.
2. The curriculum provides limited opportunities to introduce real life situations and is inadequate to absorb recent trends in many courses.

- Parents Feedback:

- Points of Satisfaction:

1. Parents were of the view that the curriculum extensively supported in developing their ward's decision making ability and conceivably helped them to identify and set their career goals.
2. They felt that their ward was more focused towards achieving a balanced approach to face professional challenges.
3. They also observed creativity in their routine activities
4. Parents acknowledged institute's efforts towards holistic development of students.

- Points of Improvement:

1. Parents suggested on adding sessions to improve communication skills of students.

- Alumni Feedback:

- Points of Satisfaction:

1. The Alumni illustrates the curriculum has developed their managerial skills.
2. They strongly agreed the curriculum of the program has help build a teamwork approach in them.
3. They also acknowledged their improved capability to contribute to organization goals.
4. Alumni agreed that they have developed analytical and leadership skills through curriculum content.
5. They are satisfied with the infrastructural facilities provided by the institute.

- Points of Improvement:

1. The Alumni recommended introducing latest additional courses that fit industry requirements.

- Employers Feedback:

- Points of Satisfaction:

1. They expressed that students have developed an ability to work in team.
2. Employers were satisfied with the infrastructural facilities available at the institute.
3. Employers do expect the curriculum should cover more skill related aspects in students to make them industry ready.

▪ Points of Improvement:

1. They strongly recommended introducing additional certification courses to enhance skills.
2. They also expressed that curriculum of the program had a few shortfalls in meeting corporate expectations in terms of practical application of theory in certain areas of work.

Dr. Kirti Dharwadkar
Head Academics

Dr. Daniel Penkar
Director