Report: SBPIM has conducted expert session of foreign language orientation for MBA students. The session was conducted by Mrs. Vrushali Bhalerao in-charge of professional development cell at PCCOE. She is ME in designing and have 9+ of experience. She guided student for foreign language such as German & Japanese.

The session started with importance of foreign language and she told being an MBA grad who knows the local lingo is necessary not only to transact business per se, it also means you understand your clients, customers or business partners' culture, its nuances, business practices and their ethos – a really huge plus point. She also shared about getting certification and time required to complete foreign language. Session was highly interactive and students cleared lots of query.
