Session on "Indian Constitution"

1st April 2021

The Constitution of India is the supreme law of India. The document lays down the framework that demarcates fundamental political code, structure, procedures, powers, and duties of government institutions and sets out fundamental rights, directive principles, and the duties of citizens. It is the longest written constitution of any country on earth.

It imparts constitutional supremacy (not parliamentary supremacy, since it was created by a constituent assembly rather than Parliament) and was adopted by its people with a declaration in its preamble. Parliament cannot override the constitution.

It was adopted by the Constituent Assembly of India on 26 November 1949 and became effective on 26 January 1950. The constitution replaced the Government of India Act 1935 as the country's fundamental governing document, and the Dominion of India became the Republic of India. To ensure constitutional autochthony, its framers repealed prior acts of the British parliament in Article 395. India celebrates its constitution on 26 January as Republic Day.

The constitution declares India a sovereign, socialist, secular, and democratic republic, assures its citizens justice, equality and liberty, and endeavours to promote fraternity. The original 1950 constitution is preserved in a helium-filled case at the Parliament House in New Delhi. The words "secular" and "socialist" were added to the preamble in 1976 during the Emergency.

We at S. B. Patil Institute of Management conducted a session on "Indian Constitution" for nonteaching staff of the Institute. Ms. Swaleha Mujawar, Asst. Teacher was invited to deliver a session on the topic of great importance. She told about the team involved in the making of the Indian Constitution. She also told that why the Indian constitution is considered as the longest constitution. She also explained briefly about the content of the Constitution. Ms. Rutuja Adsul from MBA I introduce the speaker and proposed Vote of Thanks.
