It was an honor to host the National Seminar in collaboration with CEGR on a subject of interest “Bridging Education with Industry 4.0”. The event started with welcoming all the dignitaries, teaching and non teaching staff and students of SBPIM. The welcome address was given by the personality with the perfect blend of effective leadership and effective management, Dr. Daniel Penkar, Director, SBPIM. He started the seminar mentioning the importance of education at every aspect and sector of personal and professional life. He also mentioned that the application of education is of utmost importance and should be done wisely.

Dr. Prabaht Ranjan, Vice Chancellor, D. Y. Patil International University shared his experience and opinion on the theme of the seminar. He shared that the technology will change drastically and also emphasized that the technology in 2035 will be different from 2020 and that there are various development projects going on. He also said that in future everything will become digital and D. Y. Patil University is trying to create digital replica of Padmashree D. Y. Patil Sir.

Dr. Shri Hari was very appreciated due to his treasured conversation with the participants. He explained the importance of education by stating an example of movie “Gods must be crazy”. He also emphasized on evolution of teaching methods and future challenges for teachers and students of millennial generation. He focused on Kolb's Theory which should be implemented by the teachers of SBPIM.

Col. Navinder Narang explained the practical aspects of the seminar theme with his life experiences at NDA to learn then unlearn and relearn. He also addressed about the educational gap at rural schools and colleges. She focused about the importance of basic skills and the 3 circle theory which are zone of control, zone of influence and zone of contribution.

Dr. Girish Bakshi discussed on Education with Industry 4.0 with many live examples. He shared his expertise in the field of industry and academics.

The event ended with CEGR pledge which says to promote quality education and learners self sustainable.

The event was anchored by Dr. Iram Ansari and vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Anuradha Phadnis and the event was coordinated by Dr. Swapnali Kulkarni.
