Students were given paints and brushes and were asked to paint the learning materials on the walls of the Krantijyoti Savitribai Phule Sanstha’s Primary School. The school principal and students really appreciated this shram daan by the students of S.B. Patil Institute of Management. Students were provided with a certificate of Appreciation from Sproug Hub foundation. Students learned that how resources can be put to use and how can we make a difference in the society by contributing towards the noble cause.
