All the ladies staff members and the girl students of MBA – I & II year were present online for the session.

The session started with a welcome speech given by Miss Aishwarya Datar, MBA I year. She said that during the past fifty years, the situation of professional women has changed dramatically. Women have expanded their career aspirations. They are no longer confined to traditional female fields but can see the integration of women into previously male dominated fields. Hence time management becomes very vital.

Dr. Madhavi Deshpande started her session by saying that more attributes have been added to the personality of a woman like being strong, financially independent, handling more responsibilities other than just home, are educated and are self-satisfactory, at the same time they are gentle, innocent, loving and have concerned nature. She also said that a working woman has more responsibilities to handle other than domestic chores, for them every day is like a new challenge. Managing time for working women becomes imperative. A structured time management technique with enough efforts solves every challenge that is faced in a day by them.

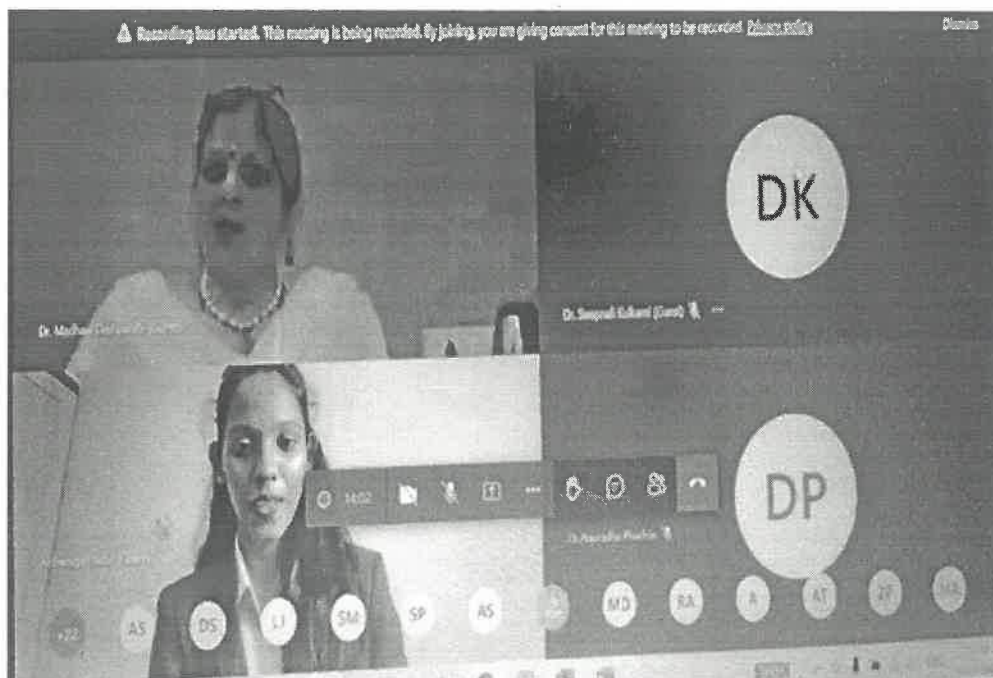

Dr. Deshpande also said that unable to manage time is the problem mainly faced by working women employees and the main reason is that they not just have to maintain work-life balance but are expected to do a little more on both the areas.

Dr. Madhavi said that by prioritizing the chores for each day and clever time organization, taking pleasure in being a household manager and a professional and also celebrate each thing in your life from work to being a mother, from engrossing in your interests to your family members'. She assured that as you carry on to increase your steps you will progress closer to your aims and find yourself with all the necessary time you require for the stuffs you want to do.

The session was very informative and useful. Many questions on behalf of girl students were asked by Miss. Ashwini Suresh where in the participants got satisfactory answers from Dr. Deshpande. The session ended with Miss. Mrunal Deshmukh thanking Dr. Madhavi Deshpande and all the participants.
