Dhyanotsav was organized at Pimpri-Chinchwad area of Pune during 9th January to 11th January 2020. The area of Chinchwad in Pune is populated mostly by Marathi speaking people with religious bent of mind. The people of this area have responded very well to Dhyanotsav and felt indebted for this kind of opportunity rendered to them. This Dhyanotsav was attended by approximately 1000 people for this programme.

Many renowned educationalists and dignitaries from industries and Maha-metro rail were felicitated. Among educationalists, Dr. P D Patil, the Chancellor of Dr. D Y Patil Vidyapeeth, Pimpri, Pune, was one of them to participate in the programme. The sponsors' of this Dhyanotsav, including Ashwini Internatinal School, Tournament Planner, and Hindustan Times were also felicitated.

The best seller book 'Designing destiny' was introduced to public by unveiling this book by Dignitaries in three languages of Marathi, Hindi and English respectively on 9th, 10th and 11th of January 2020. These books and 'The way of heart' were made available for sale.

Every day the beginning of the programme was started with sweet Flute Recital. This was followed by programme every day by the students of Brighter Minds guided by Sister Surabhi Sahai. The audience appreciated the demonstrations by young boys and girls.

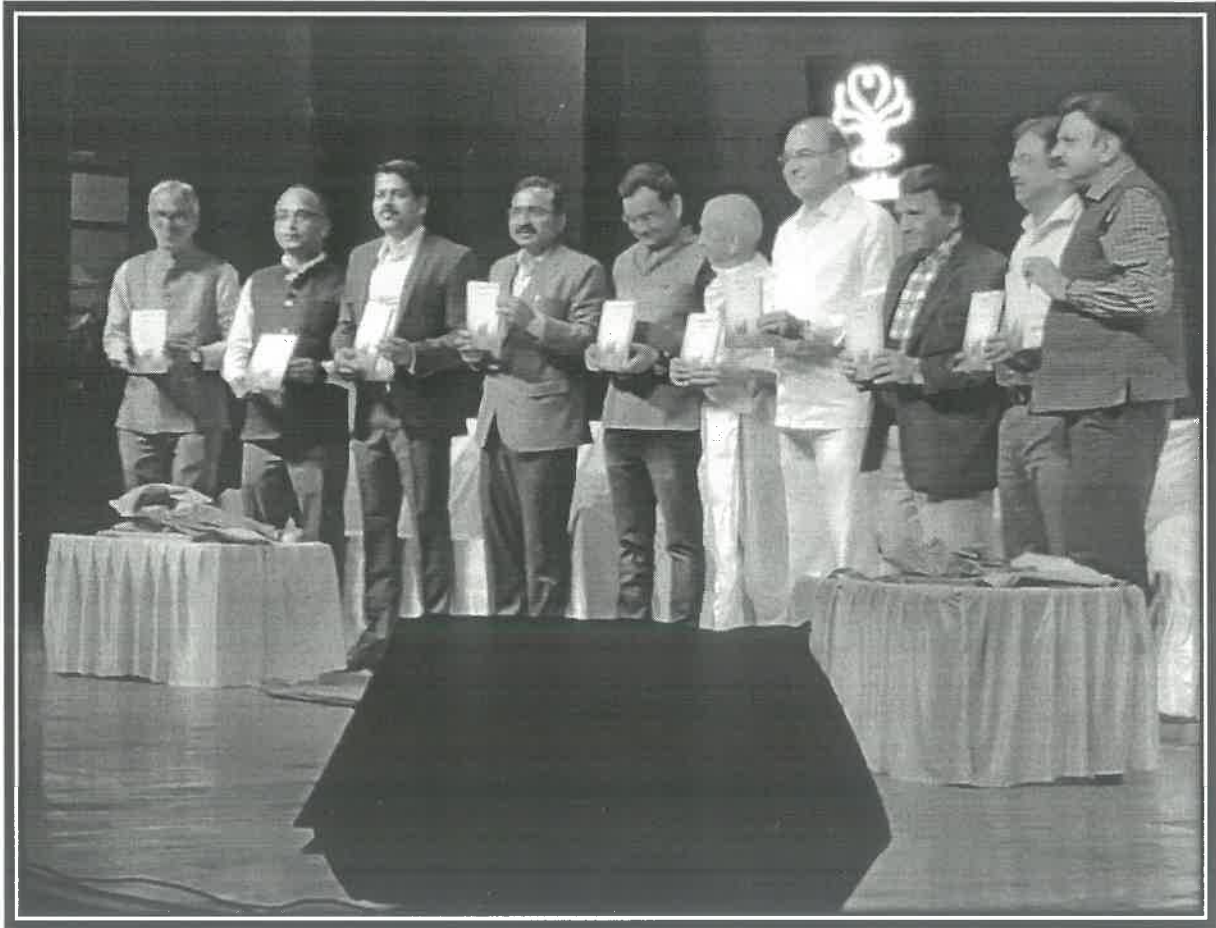

After these initial beginnings introduction to heartfulness meditation was given first day followed by relaxation technique and meditation. Similarly second and third day the sessions of heartfulness meditation on 'Rejuvenation' and 'Connecting with own self' were taken. Local prefects Vishwas Pitre, Prakash Adwani and Brother Tushar Pradhan from Mumbai were involved in conduct of these sessions.

All the needful information was shared with the audience through stalls and displays in the porch regarding School Connect, University Connect, Brighter Minds, Kanha Registrations for special batch of 7th-9th Feb.2020, contact details of co-ordinators in these areas from which people came to join. They were also provided website link details and HeartsApp information.

All volunteers of Heartfulness from Pune offered their services for this programme conducted in public interest. Brother Harshal Jawale suggested audience present and heartfulness trainers to facilitate continuation of heartfulness meditation in this area of Pimpri-Chinchwad. Accordingly new location for Sunday group meditation has been identified.
