Ms. Gargee Datta firstly explained about the Coworking, it is about when people assemble neutral space to work independently on different projects. It's different than a typical office workspace because the people in a coworking environment generally aren't working for the same company.

Not only do coworking spaces provide a place to work, they also offer many perks with the space. These include anything from workout spaces, food services, conference rooms, and many more amenities.

The ability to balance work and personal life increases with facilities nearby to support your lifestyle. Some of those perks at desk chair include:

1. Concierge level support

3. Onsite Health Club-Style Fitness Centre

4. Grab & Go Food and Coffee
