CONVERGENCE – 2014
(AN ALUMNI MEET)

SBPIM organised its second alumni meet 'CONVERGENCE – 2014' on February 22, 2014.

Two minutes silence was observed to give condolence to our ex-student Mr. Akash Vihire.

The program began with welcome speech by Director Dr. Daniel Penkar. He motivated the alumni in his own charismatic way sharing his own experience as an alumnus of Ness Wadia College. Mr. Shyam Shelke, Secretary of Alumni Association of SBPIM and Prof. Anishkumar Karia Treasurer Alumni Association of SBPIM were felicitated.

Prof. Priya Gole took us through the development journey of SBPIM since inception which included receiving ISO 9001:2008 certification, award for college of substance, institute's pride Director Dr. Daniel Penkar who won precious international and national award, achievements of Dr. H. D. Thorat, Dr. Kirti Dharwadkar and all the faculty. She also showed how the winning streak of alumni is continued by their juniors by bagging various awards and cash prizes competitions related to academics and sports.

The most memorable session of this meet was the experience shared by alumni. Shyam Shelke emphasised upon that all the alumni members to always be attached with the institute and pass on the employment opportunities to T&P cell. Mayur Dumbre, Shweta Muttalmani, Vishwajit Thool, and Gurpreet Singh expressed their gratitude towards institute's positive role and contribution in their corporate as well as in personal life. Sagar Choukhande had presented his view towards cut-throat corporate culture and success.

Mr. Shailesh Siddhatekkar Head T & P, SBPIM appealed alumni to contribute more and more for creating better opportunities in corporate world for their juniors and continue the same enthusiastic association with institute. He expressed vote of thanks for active participation of alumni, all faculty members of SBPIM for making convergence a grand success.

102 alumni were present for Convergence – 2014. The meet ended with delicious dinner and informal talks amongst friends and faculty.
